Introduction

Welcome to Oakland County, Michigan!

In addition to a dynamic business environment, you will find Oakland County offers a great quality of life where people want to live, work, play and raise a family.

Our nationally high-ranked public schools, our beautiful parks and trails and of course our more than 1,400 lakes are just some of the reasons why 1.2 million people call Oakland County, Michigan home.

We are very proud of our large Japanese community here, and below are some statistics you may find of interest.

Oakland County has a:

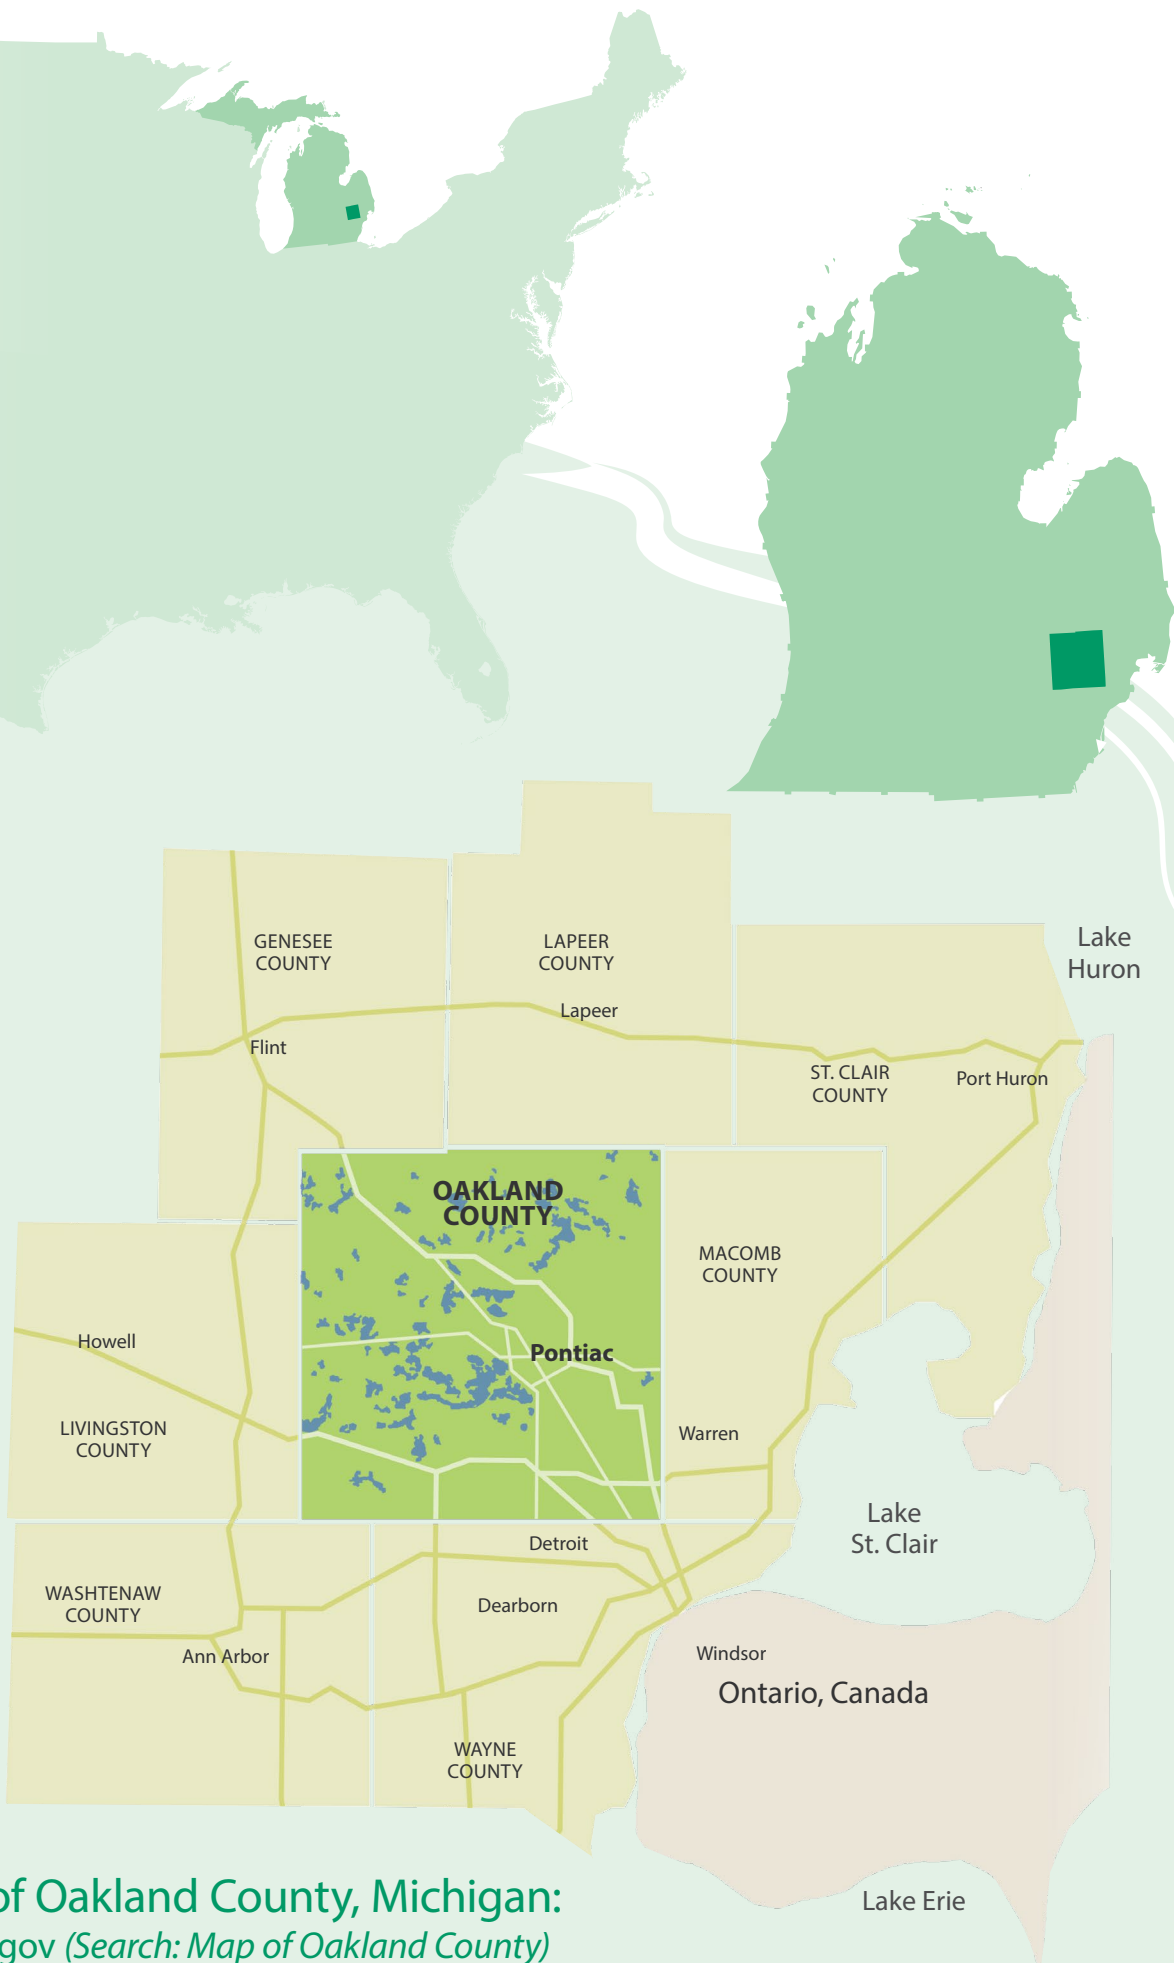

- Significant community of over 240+ Japanese-owned facilities, employing more than 12,500 residents (as of Fall 2017)
- Ringo Kai Japanese School, one of the largest in U.S. — located in the city of Novi
- Great Lakes Taiko Center, LLC — located in the city of Novi
- University providing an opportunity to earn an International Baccalaureate degree
- New Asian Village in development
- New Japanese “Sakura Garden,” opening in Summer 2018
- Japanese Welcoming Committee to help new Japanese residents and their families transition to Michigan

In Michigan:

- Nearly 5,000 Michigan students (K-12 and university) take Japanese language and culture classes
- Almost 500 Japanese-owned facilities in Michigan with more than 40,500 direct jobs (per recent JDI Survey).

I hope this resource guide is helpful to you, as we welcome you to our community.
